

Belmont Small Business Awards Attracts International Recording Artist

This year's special guest entertainer for the 19th Belmont Small Business Awards is 'Maggie Joddrell Britton', an International recording artist with chart (Top ten) records in the United Kingdom, Europe, Australia and New Zealand. Maggie's song writing talent, vocal expertise and her dynamic live performance have taken her throughout Australia and around the world.

From the beginning of her career as a regular performer on Brian Henderson's Bandstand (Channel 9, Sydney Australia) Maggie toured extensively throughout Australia and New Zealand. Her first single 'Come On Down' reached number one on the New Zealand chart and remained in the top ten for twelve weeks.

Maggie has shared the stage and appeared on television with some of the biggest names in the entertainment industry including:

The Bee Gee's, Robin Gibb, Peter Sellers, Kenny Rogers, Glen Campbell, Mama's and Papa's, The Temptations and the Three Degrees (Prince Charles' favourite group) and evergreen British star Max Bygraves, to mention just a few.

Of her attendance at the upcoming Belmont Small Business Awards, CEO Carol Hanlon said, "I have known and watched Maggie's career blossom throughout the last 35 years. It is wonderful to have such a talented artist and friend performing for us at the awards."

Along with attending the Belmont Small Business Awards, Maggie will also be presenting songs and stories from her popular album "Ditto" plus other well loved jazz standards in her show "Live and Intimate". Dates and venues include the below:
