

<http://www.fashionsource.com.au/news/buying-missions-to-hong-kong-fashion-week-20111219-20742.html>

FASHION + LIFESTYLE SERVICE

In Asia. And beyond. NEW IN AS

AUSTRALIA CHINA HONG KONG INDIA INDONESIA KOREA MALAYSIA PHILIPPINES SINGAPORE

HOME NEWS FEATURES COMPANIES SOURCE ONI

Home > News > Buying missions to Hong Kong fashion week

Buying missions to Hong Kong fashion week

The Textile, Clothing and Footwear Resource Centre of Western Australia Inc (TCFWA), TCF Australia and the Belmont Business Enterprise Centre (Belmont BEC) are hosting buying missions to the World Boutique and Hong Kong Fashion Week in January 2012.

Hosted on behalf of the Hong Kong Trade Development Council the buying missions are suitable for: retailers - looking to source and import new fashion and accessory labels; manufacturers - looking to locate offshore manufacturers from Hong Kong, China, Taiwan; designers - looking to source CMT factories, trims, accessories and raw materials; industry looking for new fashion business opportunities, attend 2013 trend direction seminars, develop new agency / distributorship agreements; and new businesses - those wishing to start a new fashion label and looking to undertake market research, sourcing and supply chain requirements to establish a business.

Belmont BEC, TCFWA, and TCF Australia CEO Carol Hanlon said, "Working in conjunction with the Hong Kong Trade Development Council, we are excited to invite Australian businesses in the TCF sector to Hong Kong Fashion Week and World Boutique."

Hong Kong Fashion Week 2012 was also offering hotel sponsorship registration and VIP privileges to eligible businesses, she said.

Ventures wishing to be considered for an accommodation sponsorship to Hong Kong between 16 and 19 of January 2011, contact clarisse.reynoso@tcfaustralia.com released: Monday, 19 December 2011